Except for one, all of the attached papers were written by undergraduate students for a "Seminar in Speech" which I taught during the years indicated. There has been no attempt to edit the papers or to comment on them. They provide a valuable source of historical material. The following papers are included:

AUTHOR	TITLE	DATE
Boyd, Michael	"Campus Radio--The Maine Bear on the Air"	1954
Danner, Howard	"WORO--A Chronology of Correspondence and Filed Material"	1955
Eaton, Robert D.	"The Involvement of the University of Maine in the Media of Television Between the Years of 1953-1963"	1969
Loud, Carol M.	"A History of Radio Station WORO"	1956
Lumsden, Dale	"Can WMEB-FM Better Serve Its On-Campus Audience Without Jeopardizing Its Appeal to Off-Campus Listeners?"	1970
Reynolds, V. Paul	"Campus Radio--A Decade of History"	1964
Skiffington, Skip	"The Historical Development of Radio at the University of Maine--1925 to 1969"	1969
Stanley, John	"The Attitudes of Students Working at WMEB-FM Toward Broadcasting"	1969
Woolley, T. Russell (faculty)	"A History of Station WORO"	1953
